

Our school is located in Marano Vicentino, a town with 9700 inhabitants, in the north-east of Italy, near Vicenza. The name of the school is "Vittorio Alfieri", an Italian dramatist and poet, considered the "founder of Italian tragedy". At the moment in this secondary school there are 327 students from 11 to 14 years old. Apart from Italian and English, they study either French or Spanish.