

THE PLASTIC

Avenger

Day 1:

John is on the beach.

People are throwing water bottles away and John gets very angry. He tells people that it is not right to do this.

He touches a bottle and it becomes biodegradable.

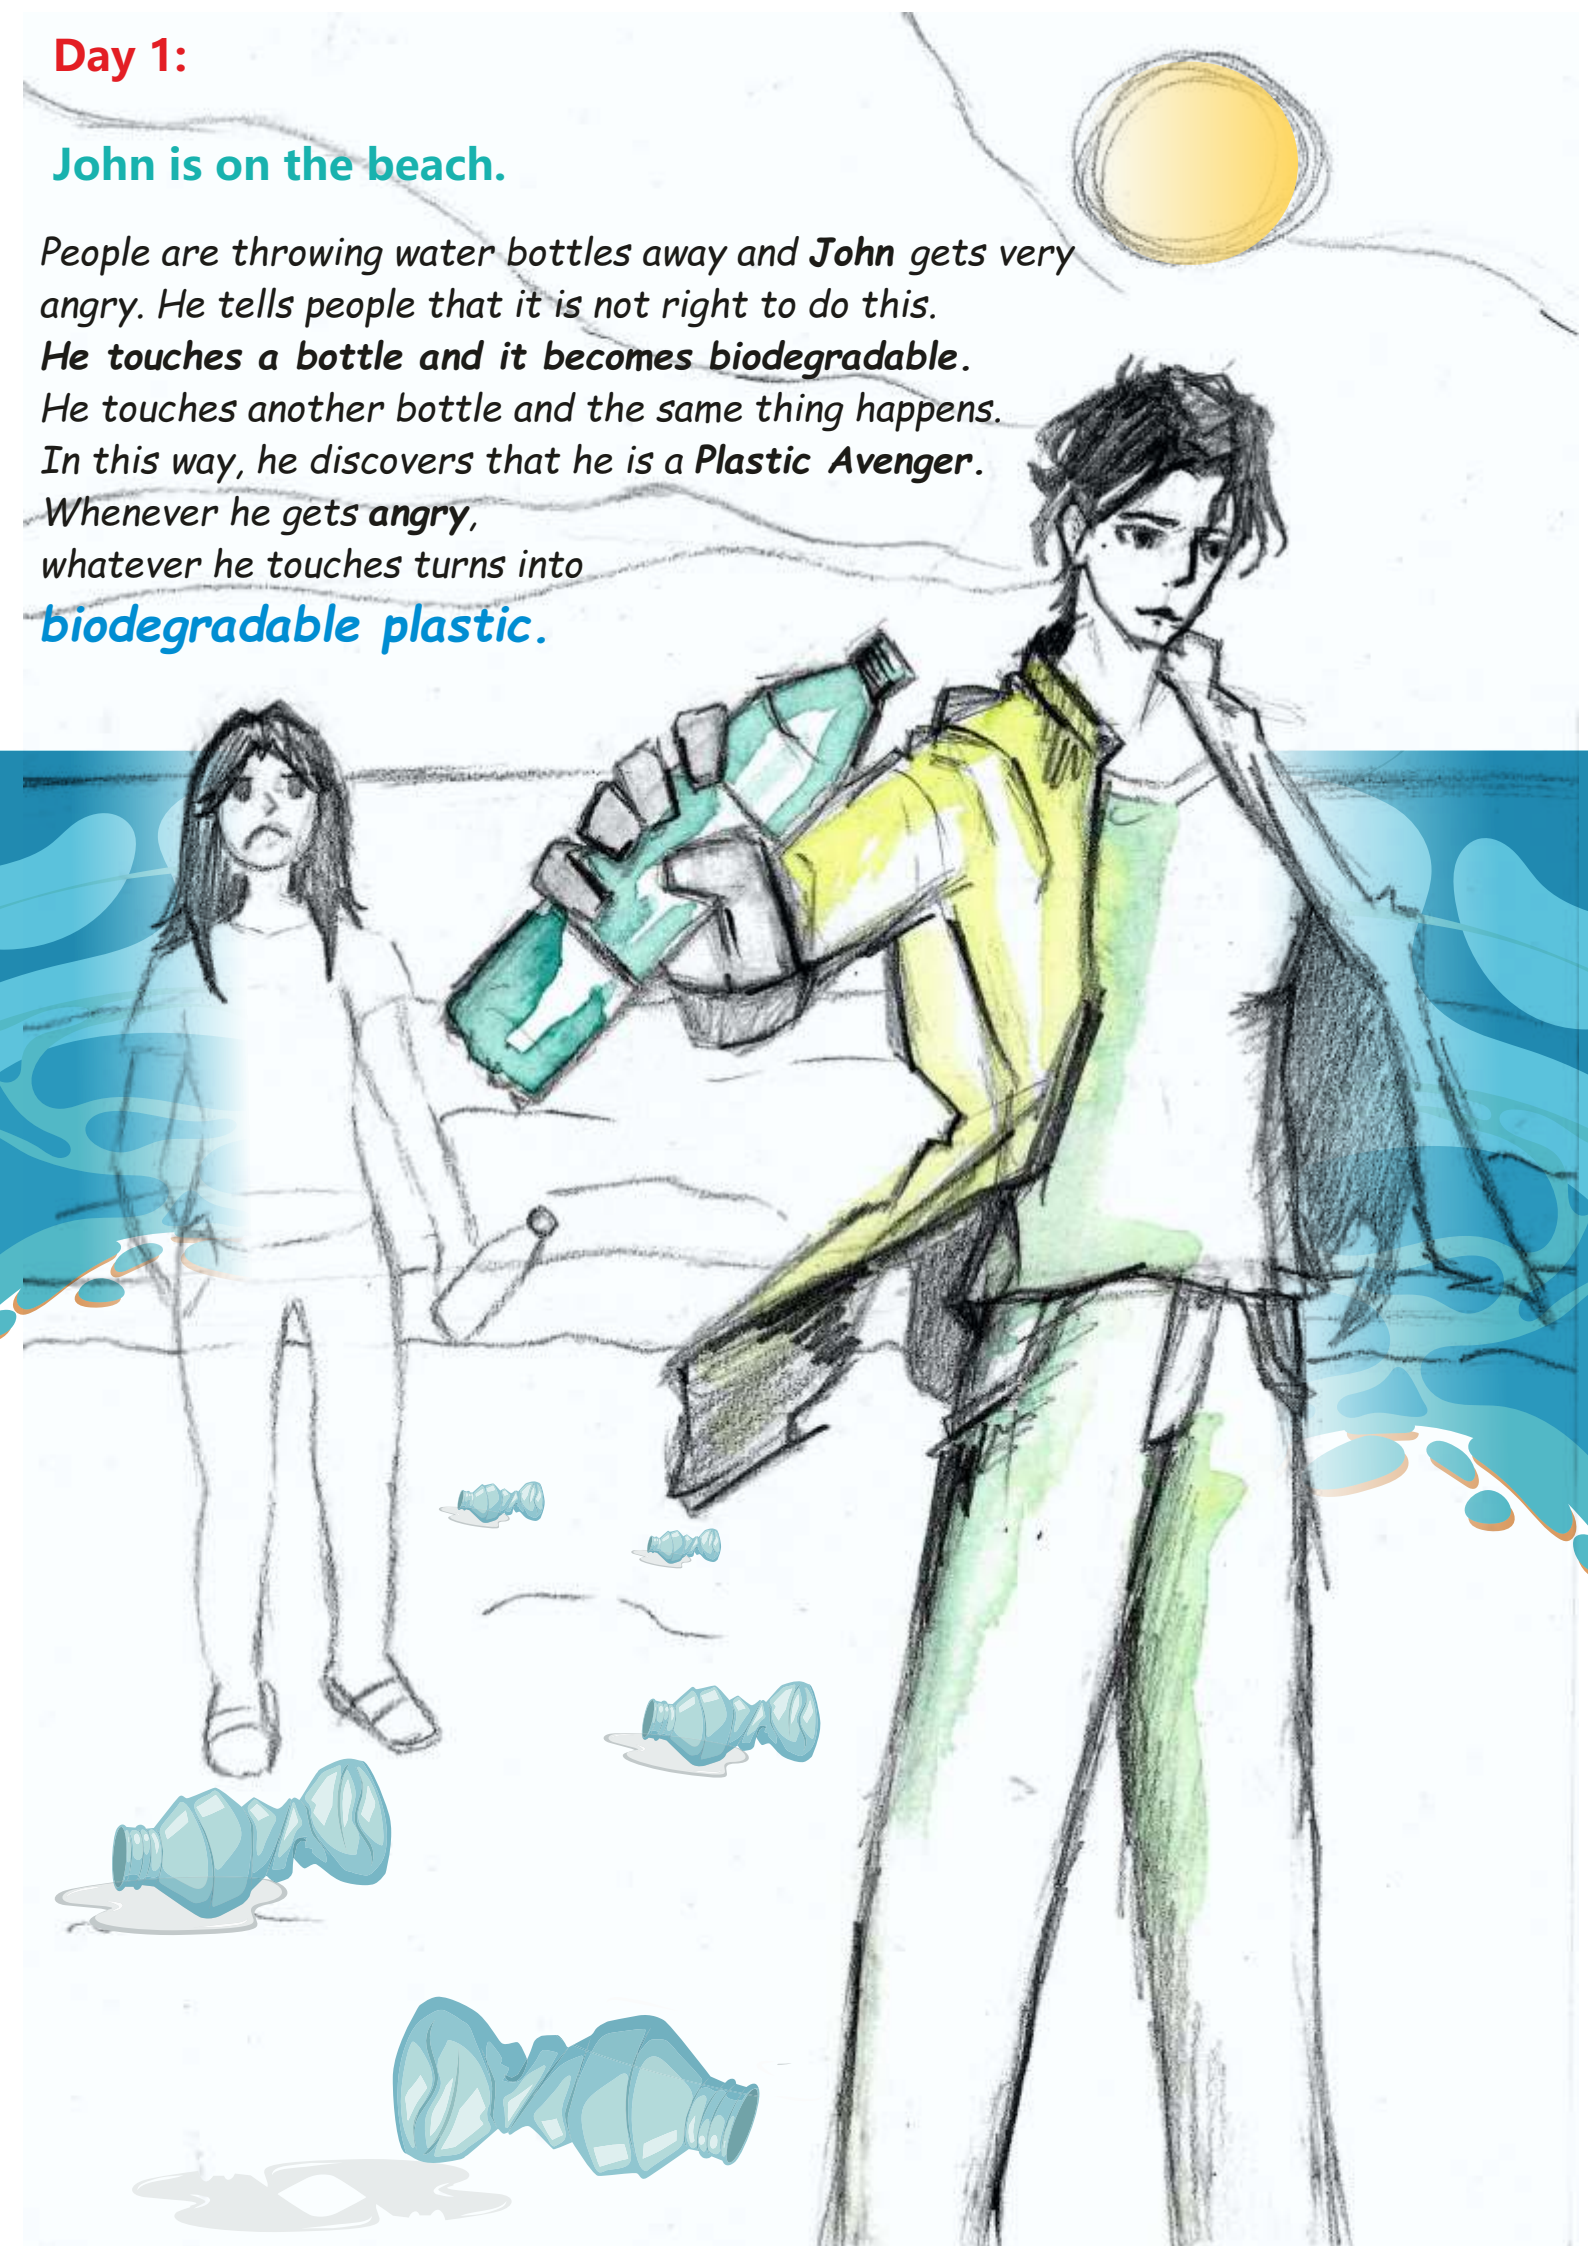

He touches another bottle and the same thing happens.

In this way, he discovers that he is a Plastic Avenger.

Whenever he gets angry,

whatever he touches turns into biodegradable plastic.

Day 2:

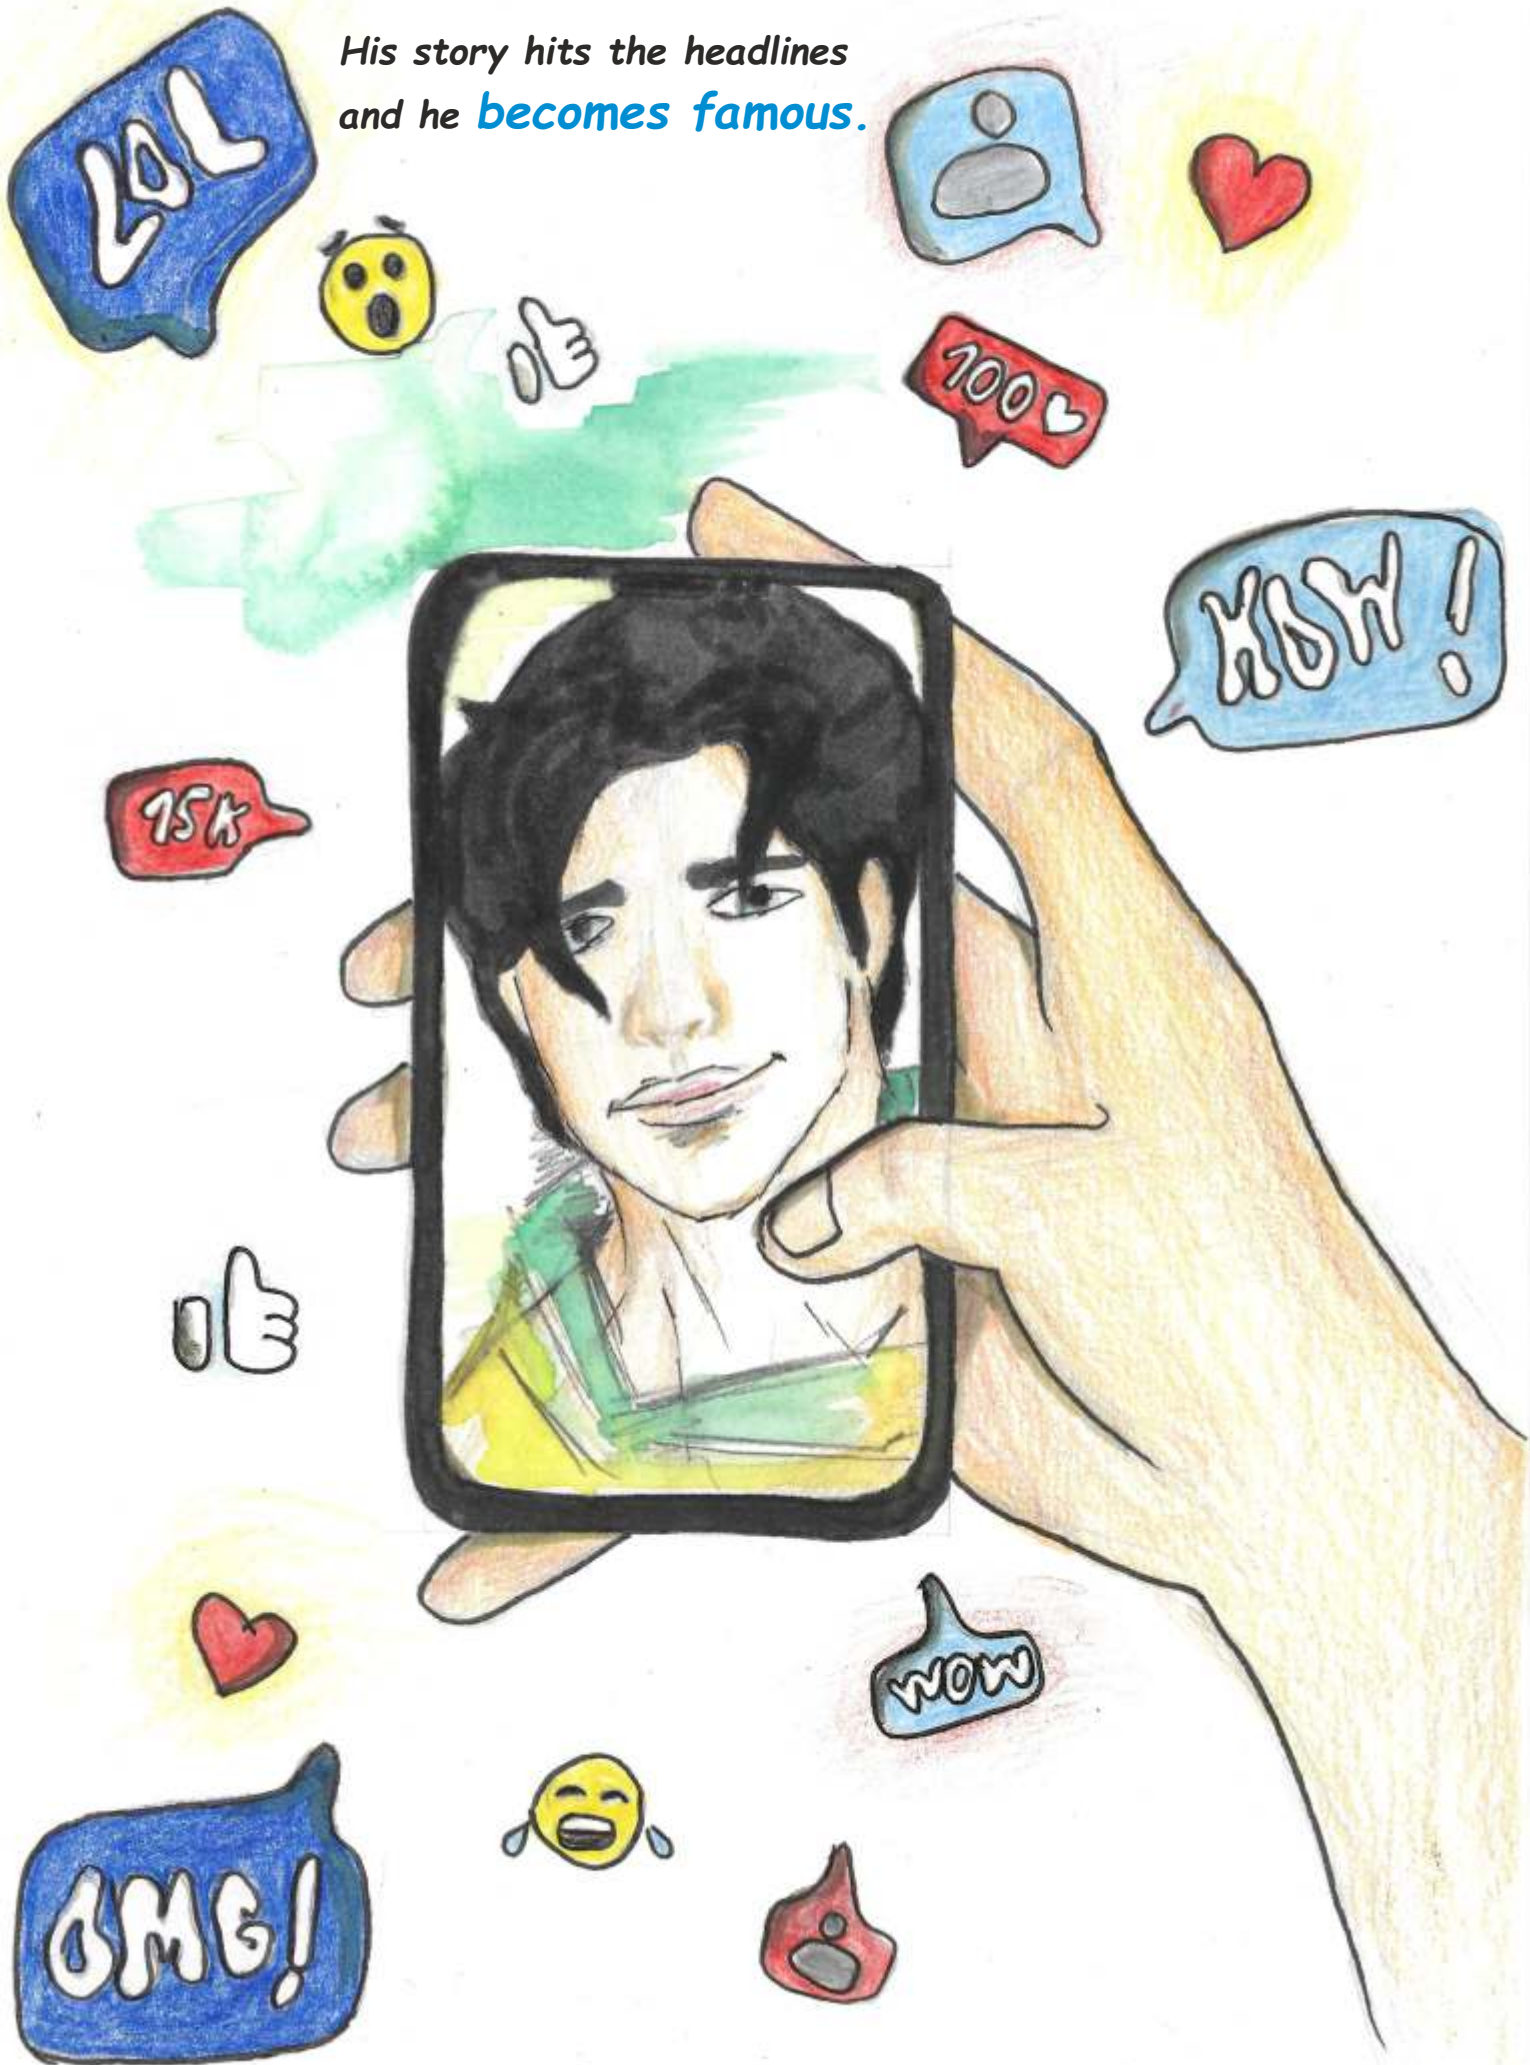

John sees a man who throws a plastic bag on the street and he becomes angry again. He tells the man not to throw his rubbish. He touches the bag and turns it into a bag that is biodegradable.

3

Day 3:

His story hits the headlines
and he becomes famous.

TOY'S FACTORY

Day 4:

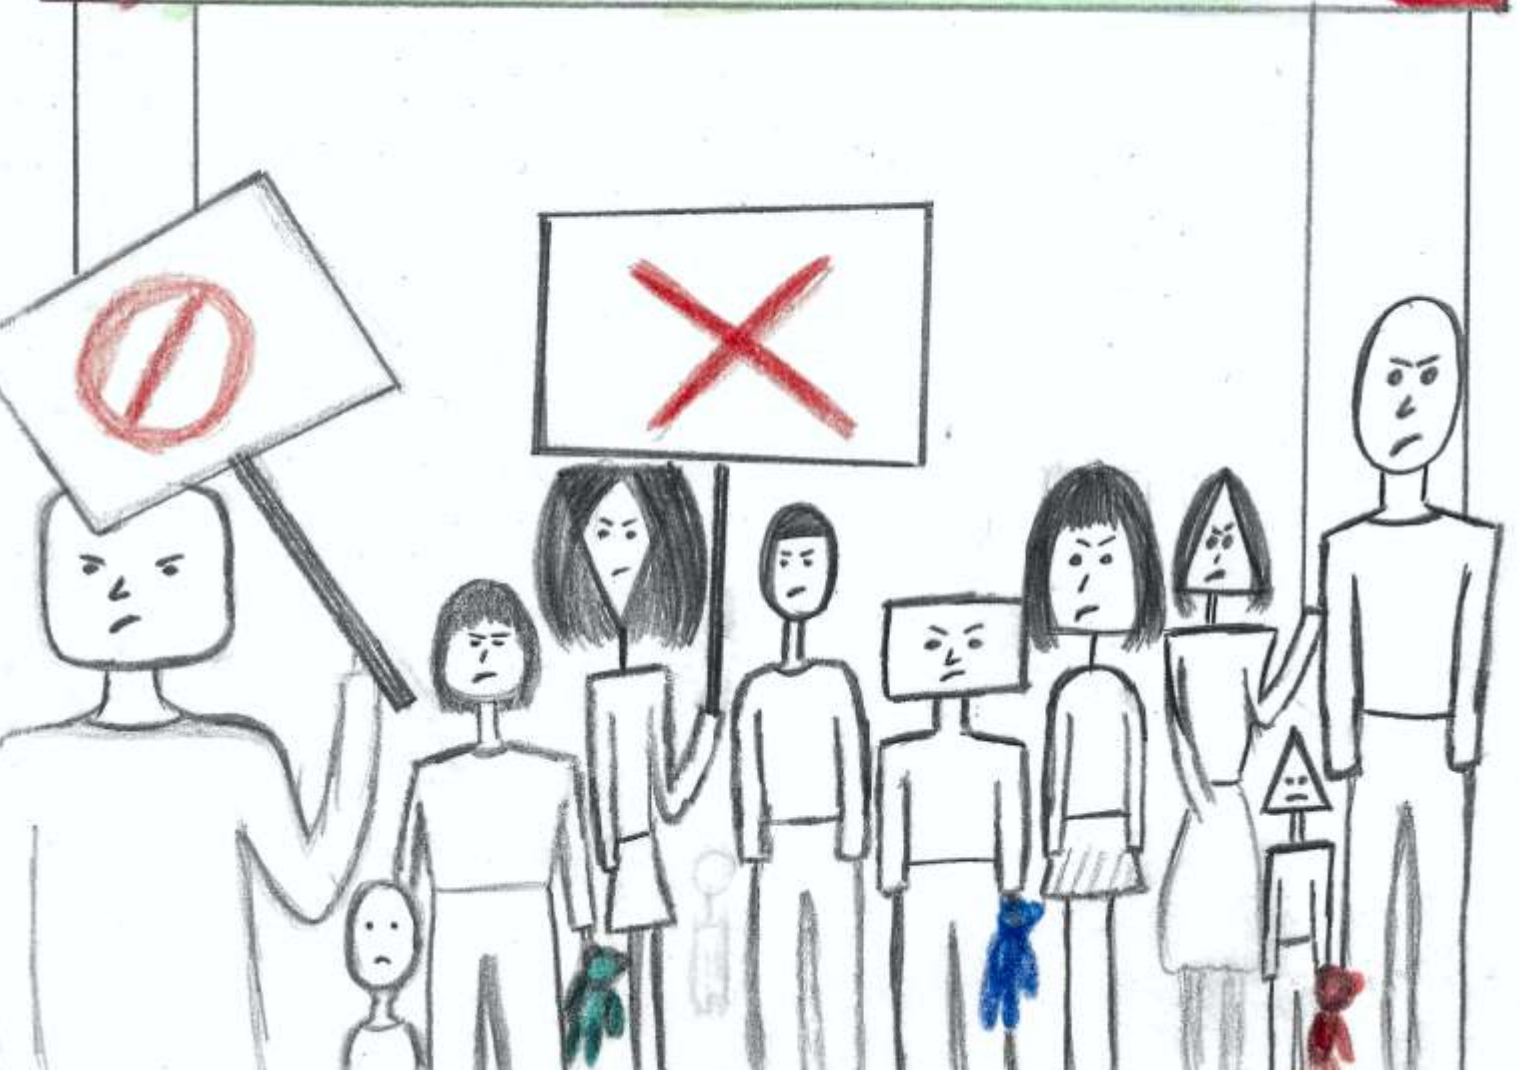

John sees a toy factory
He turns all the toys into biodegradable toys
and some people
become very angry.

TOYS

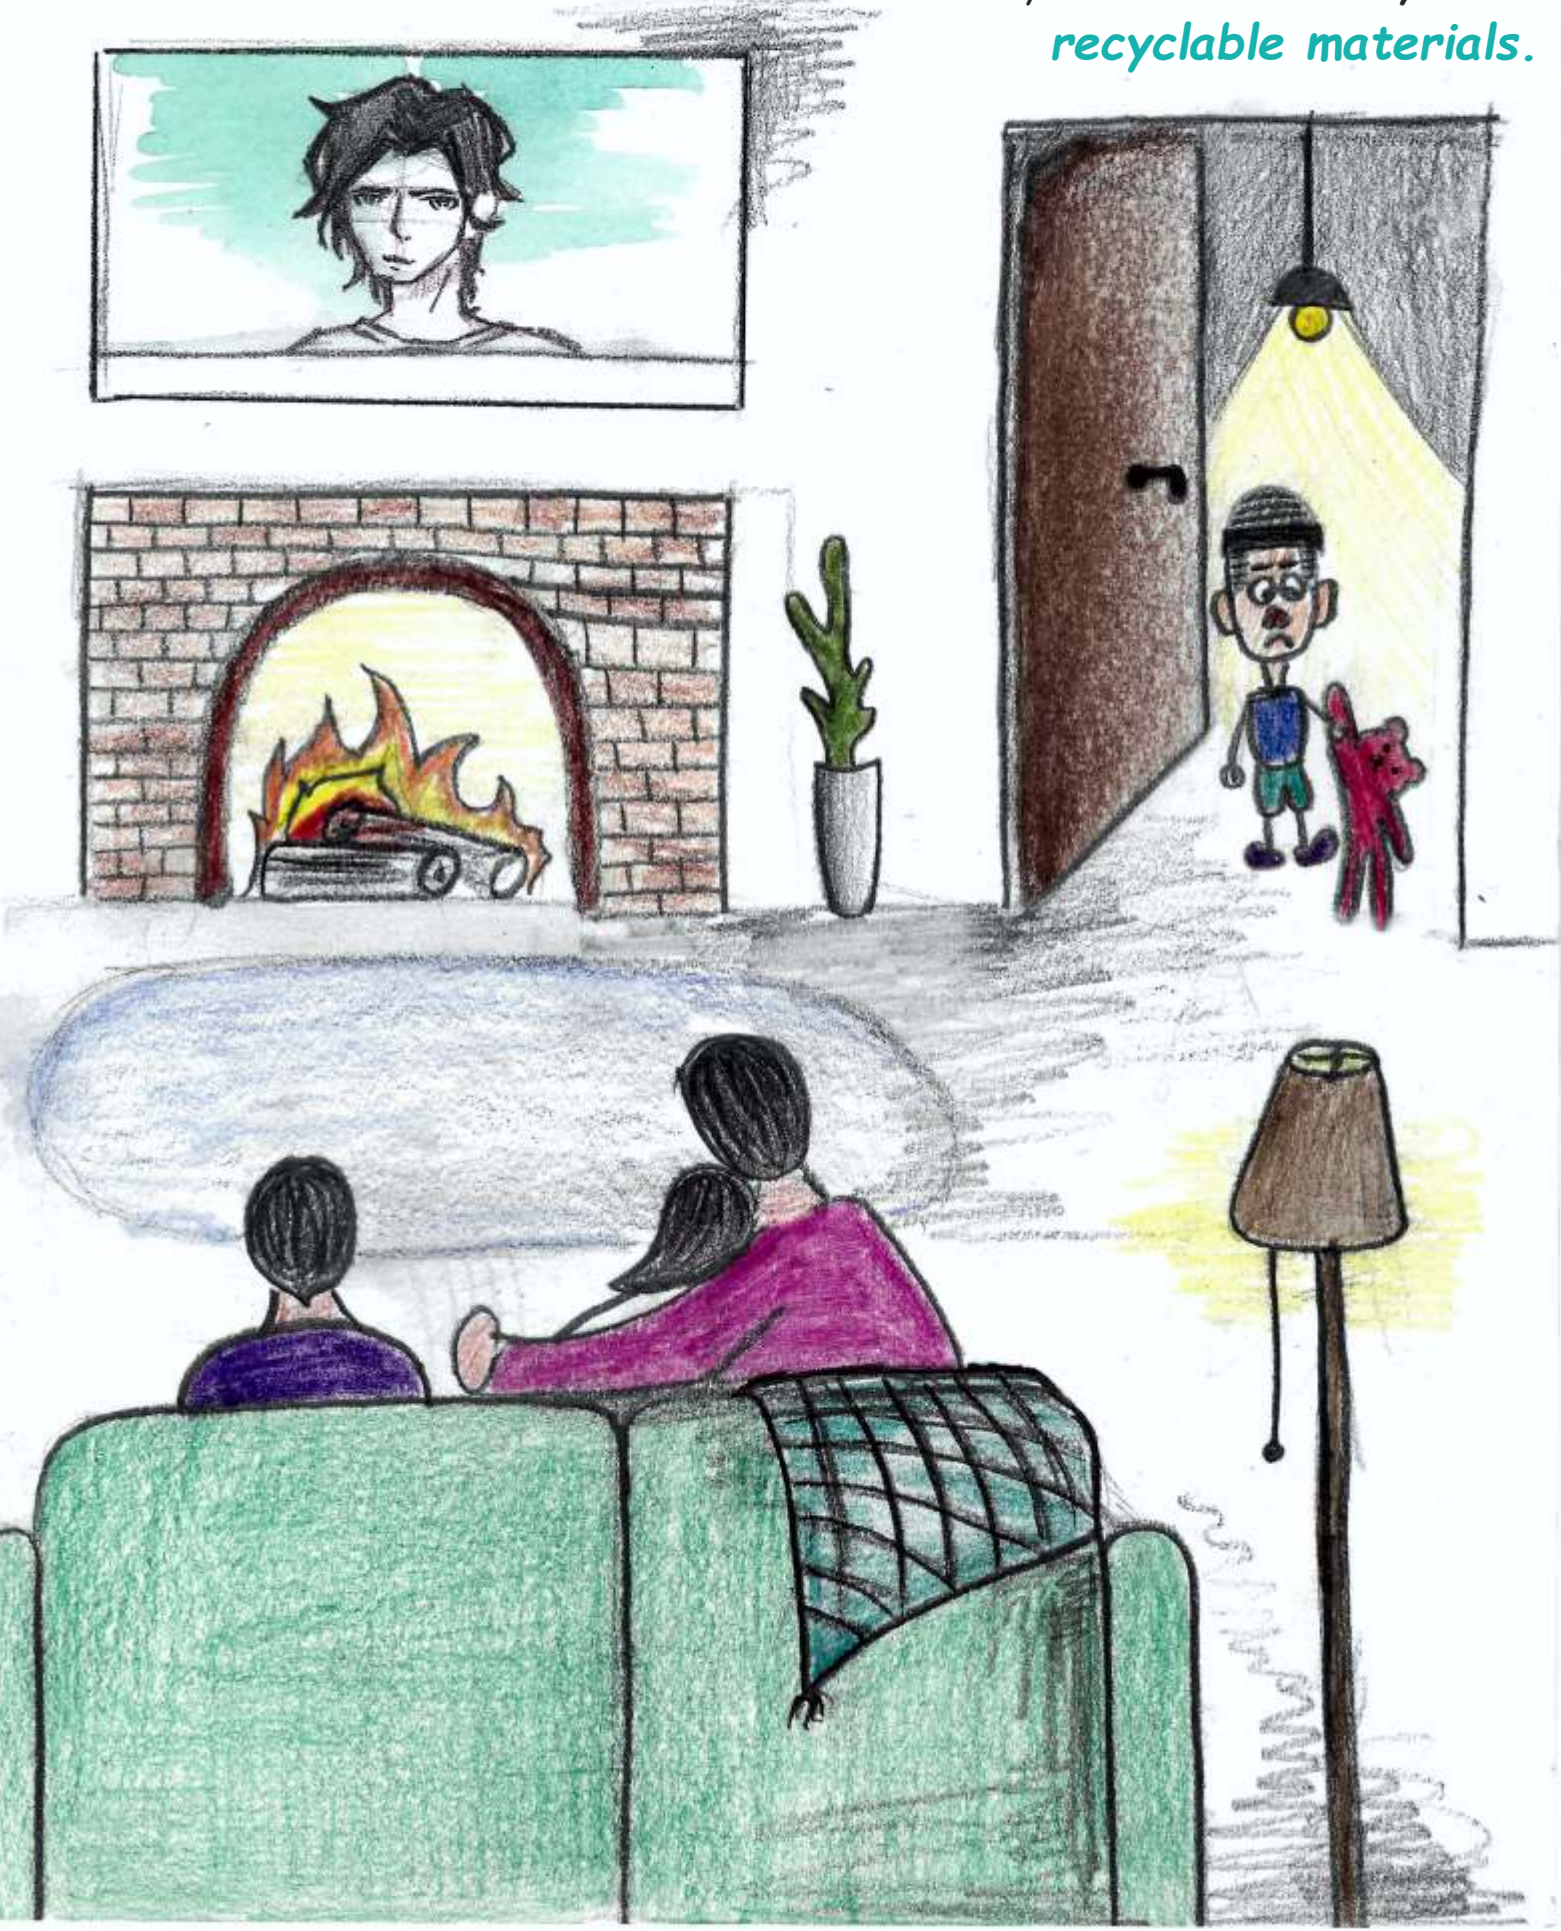

Day 5:

Angry citizens protest because the kids won't be able to play with these toys for a long time.

Day 6:

There are a lot of debates about this issue on TV and social media. Parents realise that it's important that toys shouldn't be made from materials that harm the environment. Politicians make new rules and regulations for toy factories. From now on toys are made from recycled or recyclable materials.

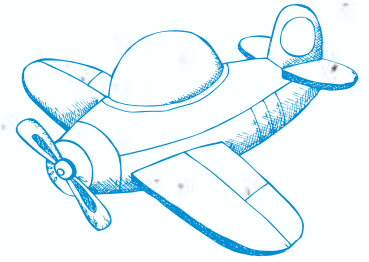

Day 7:

John creates a group and travels around the world.

The members of the group collect plastic rubbish and he turns it into biodegradable materials.

He is considered to be a very successful activist.

Written by:

Alexandros
Christos
Dimitris
Evgenia
George Ippokratis
Iasonas
Melina
Nikitas
Thodoris
Zacharoula
Zeta

Illustrated by:

Alexandra L.
Daria
Rebeca
Sara
Tania
Tina